

M. Design (Multimedia) - 1st Sem.
(2116)

Paper-III: Logic Pro

Time allowed: 3 hrs.

Max. Marks: 40

Attempt any five Questions:

05 X 1=05

1. If you click on the Plus sign, in the arrangement window, do you get?
 - a) A list of songs you have recorded so far?
 - b) The MIDI keyboard opens?
2. What are logics Recording Formats?
 - A. AIFF, CAF, PCM, WAVE (BWF)
 - B. AIFF, WAVE (BWF), PCM
 - C. CAF, AIFF, WAVE (BWF)
3. Which kinds of regions go on software instrument tracks and audio tracks?
 - A. Blue regions are for Audio tracks, Green regions represent Midi for software tracks.
 - B. Green Regions are Audio tracks while blue are Midi tracks
 - C. Green Apple Loops contain audio, also Midi channel strip settings enabling them to work for both Audio and software instrument tracks.
4. To change the time signature of a song, do you
 - a) Enter a new time signature value in the time signature window?
 - b) Open Edit on the arrangement window and look for Time Signature Changes in the menu?
 - c) Change the songs tempo when needed and press save?
5. How do you insert tempo changes?
 - A. In the global Tempo track, double-click above or below the tempo line
 - B. You can't, yep sorry out of luck.
 - C. In the Settings Tempo window, double-click "Insert New Tempo Changes."
6. To create a Ramped Tempo change you will need to select:
 - A. The automatic Ramped Tempo Change button?
 - B. Change the tempo on the tool bar?
 - C. Use the pencil tool and then move the nodule where you want it to be placed?
7. To open a song in Logic Pro what do you do first?
 - a) Find the correct file on your computer, then copy and paste into Logic Pro?
 - b) Open Logic Pro, and then use File – Open, then select the right file for your song?

Attempt any five Questions:

05X3=15

1. What is MIDI Editor?
2. How do you create an Apple Loop that follows the project tempo?
3. Write a short note on limiter and compressor?
4. Explain flex time editing?
5. What is multi-output instrument?
6. How can you add tempo changes and curves?
7. Describe Automation in detail

Attempt any 2 Questions

10X2=20

1. Explain the process of mixing.
2. Give a basic overview of project layout of logic pro
3. Write short note on:
 - a) Mixer b) Sub mix