

B.A./B.Sc. Semester—III

HUMAN RIGHTS

(Societal Issues of Human Rights in India)

Time Allowed—3 Hours]

[Maximum Marks—100

Note :— (1) Attempt four questions in all from Units, I, II, III and IV, selecting at least one question from each Unit. Each question carries 20 marks.

(2) All the questions of Unit V are compulsory. Each question carries 2 marks. Answer to these questions should not exceed 8 to 10 lines.

UNIT—I

1. What is Human Rights ? Discuss their kinds in detail.
2. Discuss the major similarities between provisions made in Universal Declaration of Human Rights(1948) and Constitution of India.(1950).

UNIT—II

3. 'Social problems arise from the interaction of individuals'. In the light of this statement discuss the role of Symbolic Interactionism Theory in viewing social problems with suitable examples.
4. Give an account of Cultural Lag approach for explaining social problems.

UNIT—III

5. What is 'Population Explosion' ? How does population explosion adversely affect social changes in India ?
6. Specify the areas in which Indian women are facing problems. What are major reasons behind these problems ?

UNIT—IV

7. Write a detailed note on legal and procedural safeguard for ensuring justice and fair trial of inmates of prisons.
8. What are the steps taken up by Indian Government to protect the Human Rights of Women in custodial homes ?

UNIT—V

9. Write short notes on the following :
  - (i) Rights to Legal Aid
  - (ii) Article 21 (Right to Life and Personal Liberty)
  - (iii) Powers of National Minority Commission in safeguarding Rights of Minorities
  - (iv) Code of conduct for the police in India
  - (v) Public Interest Litigation
  - (vi) Domestic Violence
  - (vii) Achieving Gender Equality
  - (viii) Article (29) & Article (31) of Indian Constitution
  - (ix) Overcrowding in Jails
  - (x) Training of the Jail staff.